INDEX TO VOLUME XXI.

Æsthetics of the School Room—Delia Lathrop, 317.
American Colleges; Shall They be Open to Both Sexes?—Jas. B. Angell, 10.

Boston Schools, Festival of, 56.
Book Notices, 66, 142, 172, 206, 238, 270, 343, 370.

Cadetships, Fair Chance for All, 53.
Calling Roll at Institutes—W. W. Woodruff, 180.
Circular Functions—E. Schneider, 356.
Co-Education of the Sexes—Edw. H. Magill, 101.
Co-Education in Swarthmore College, 59.
Colleges and Common Schools—Editorial, 55.
Compensation of Teachers—Edward Shippen, 85.
Compulsory Education Approved—C. Cornforth, 209.
Compulsory Education Opposed—W. J. Milliken, 277.
Compulsory Education from All Sides, 348.
Compulsory Education at Boston: Wickersham's Reply to Bateman, 145.
Compulsory Education in New Hampshire, 161.
Contested Elections, 63, 169.
Corporal Punishment: New York, New Jersey, 254.
Critics and Criticism—Hattie B. Swineford, 322.
Criticism in Schools—W. W. Woodruff, 211.
Cumberland Valley State Normal School, 336, 338

Defense of Teachers—H. W. Gilbert, 152.
Diagrams in Grammar—John C. Stokes, 288.
Drawing: Its Introduction into the Common Schools—Gilbert Butler, 177.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

July—State Teachers' Association: Mr. Horne's General Programme, 19. National Association, 20. Normal School Examinations: Lists of Graduates, 21. Mr. Schneider's Mathematics: Communication, 21. Examination for Cadetships, 22. Peripatetic Examinations in England, 24. Mr. Stewart's Endowment, 25. Lincoln University, 25. Reading: Controllers' Ninth Report, 26. State Normal School Accounts, 26 Obituary: Stuart A. Wylie, 28 August—Programme of State Association, 51. A Fair Chance for All, 53. German Schools: A New View, 54. The School-Mistress, 54. Colleges and Common Schools, 55. Festival of Boston Schools, 56 Franklin and Marshall College, 58. Western University, 59 Co-Education in Swarthmore College, 59. October—Neighborly Criticism, 128. Western House of Refuge, 130. National Teachers' Association: General Association, Department of Elementary Instruction, Department of Normal Instruction, Department of Superintendency, Department of Higher Education, Banquet by City of Boston, 130–136. Another New College, 136. Bucks County: Public School Harvest Home, 136. Lebanon County: Meeting of School Directors, 136 Obituary: John S Richards, 138, November—A Word for Pennsylvania: Mr. Wickersham's Speech at the Boston Banquet, 159 Philosophical Notes. 160. Centre County: Reunion of Normal Institute, 163. Franklin County: New School-House at Waynesboro', Dr. Hering's Address, 163. What Boston Thinks of the National Association, 165. Progress at Lafayette College, 165 December—Herbert Spencer on Teaching, 193 Criticism on Teachers' Institutes, 194. Hints on Teaching: Punctuality, Point, Spelling, Corporal Punishment, 194. Schools for Working Children, 195 Horace Greeley at Kutztown: His Views on Education, 197 Schuylkill: Salaries of Teachers, etc., 198. Philadelphia: Two Notable Events, 199 Teachers' Institutes, 201. January—Compulsory Education, 216. President Grant on Education, 216. Action of New York City Principals, 216. American Education at the Vienna Exposition, 217. Our Coal Region Misrepresented: Reply to Article in New York Journal, 217. Lincoln University: Its Work, Its Wants. Account of a Recent Visit, 219. Philadelphia: New Academy of Fine Arts, New Normal School Building, 221. February—School Census in Pottsville, 253. Governor Geary on Education, 254. Educational Magazines, 256. Practical Defects of the System, 258. State Normal Schools: More about their Origin, Letter from Mr. Bannan, 259 Stubborn Pupils, 261. Corporal Punishment, 261. Perfect Recitations, 262. Apparatus Needed, 262. Rote Teaching, 262. Marking Recitations, 262. China Sending Students, 263. March—Massachusetts Qualification for Suffrage, 294. Early Training: Extract from Scribner, 295. Trip to Europe: Proposed Summer Excursion, 295. Public School Libraries: Supt. Newlin's Views, 296. Public Kindergarten in Boston, 296. The Unprofessional Profession, 297 National Normal School Platform, 298. Vocal Music in Primary Schools, 298. Politeness in School, 298. Soldiers' Orphans at the Inauguration, 300. Maryland: Statistics from Annual Report, County High Schools, Accidental Teachers, Compulsory Education, 302. Obituary: John W. Geary, John Beck, 303. April—Children's Educational Relief Association, 327. Absenteeism in New York: Corporal Punishment, 327. Judge Harding on Election Frauds, 328. An Information Class, 332. Teaching the Multiplication Table, 332. Teaching United States History, 333. How to Teach Geography, 333. Mansfield Normal School, 334. Williamsport: Extracts from Annual Report, 334. Erie: Extracts from Annual Report, 335. Cumberland Valley Normal School: Another School Recognized, 336. May—Tobacco at Polytechnic Schools of Paris, 358. What is Meant by Compulsory Education, 358. Prof. Agassiz on our Educational Systems, 358. The Forty-second Congress on Education, 359. Normal Schools Sustained, 360. School-room Æsthetics, 363. New Jersey, 363. Pittsburgh: High School. Normal School, Teachers' Institute, 364 Obituary: Jonathan Gause. Charles W. Deans Geo. C. Welker, 366 June—Philadelphia Institute, 390. Maryland, 391. A Teachers' Bank. 391. Compulsory Laws, 391. Lesson from the Penitentiary, 392. Teachers' Salaries, 393. University of Pennsylvania, 394. The School-Room. 396. Obituary: Horace Armstrong, 398. Wm. H. McGuffey, 399.

Earthquakes—A. C. Norris, 47.
Educational Veneering, 48.
Education of the Deaf, 290.
Education in Pottsville—B. F. Patterson, 243.
Education in the South, 58.
Education and Labor, 234.
Education, Constitutional Provisions Relating to, 233.
Educational Magazines—Editorial, 196, 256.
English and German in the People's Schools—Rev. S. K. Brobst, 90.
Examination Questions: An Iowa List, 190. An Indiana list, and Luzerne County list, 212. Examination for Masterships in the Boston Grammar Schools, 252. West Chester High School, June, 1872, 290. List from Supt. D. G. Allen, Wayne county, Penna, 324. San Francisco List, 355, 385.

Florence Nightingale: Letter to Dr. Moss, 14.
Four Days in Boston—Editorial Correspondence, 38.
Fugitive Thoughts: The Teacher's Jubilee–Teachers at Institute—Small Events—E. M V. Moore, 154.

Gov. Geary on Education, 254.
Grading of Country Schools—S. S. Jack, 36.
Graphic Analysis: No. I—J. Willis Westlake, 381.
Greek and Latin, Their Place in a College Course of Study—W. C. Cattell, 83.

Haps and Mishaps—Anna R. Bailey. 80.
Heavenward Side, The, 388.
Horace Greeley on Education, 197.
How Many Leading Studies? 179.

Inaugural Address—Henry Houck, 77.

Justice: A Story for Schools, 188.

La Fayette College, Progress at, 165.
Language in Teaching Arithmetic, 192.
Libraries, Public School, 296.
Lincoln University, 25.
Local Training Schools, 329.

Making Voters—Editorial, 373.
Manners of the School-Room—T. J. Chapman, 387.
Mathematical Notes—No. IV.: Algebraic Language—Edward Brooks, 9.
Memory Worship—Amelia V. Pettit, 214.
Mental Culture—J. E. Ross, 19.

Mental Science: Importance to the Teacher of this Kind of Knowledge—Edward Brooks, 314.
Methods of Recitation: Consecutive, Simultaneous, Promiscuous, 186.
Miscellany, 174, 241, 273, 309, 344, 371, 405.
Moral Training—D. R. Brubaker, 321.
Moral Training—Its Necessity in Free Schools, 115.
My Method in Spelling—S. B. McCormick, 122.

National Unity—Editorial, 33.
National Teachers' Association at Boston, 130–136.
National Education in Ireland, 160.
Neighborly Criticism: The N. Y. Tribune on Our State Association—Editorial, 128.
Normal Schools Questioned—Editorial, 360.
Normal School Boards, State Trustees in, 168.
Normal Schools, A Visit—C. L. Ehrenfeld, 120.

Object Teaching: Analogy and Contrast, 286.
Oral Instruction—Prof. Buckham, 182.

OFFICIAL DEPARTMENT.
Permanent Certificates Granted, 29, 63, 140. 168, 266. 304, 338, 367, 399. Examinations at the Orphan Schools, 29. The Right to Suspend Pupils, 30. Items from Late Reports, 31, 65, 142, 171, 205, 266, 305, 340, 369. Convention of Superintendents, 62. School Statistics: Population by Counties, Census of 1870; Taxables, Assessment of 1871, State Appropriation 1872, 63. Contested Elections, 63. List of County Superintendents, 141. List of City and Borough Superintendents, 141. Reports and Certificates, 141. Table Showing Superintendents' Work, 167. City and Borough Reports, 167. City and Borough Reports: Statistics, 169, 202, 266, 304, 339, 369, 401. Contested Elections, 169. Statistical Table; Work done by Superintendents during School Year, 1871–1872, 170. Endorsing Provisional Certificates, 202. Delinquent Districts, 203 Washington and Jefferson College, 203. Notes on Institute Campaign, 204, 268, 306, 340 Thirty-ninth Annual Report of State Superintendent of Common Schools: Summary of Statistics, 223. Tabular Statements, 224. Table Showing Educational Growth in the Past Eight Years, 225. Orphan School Summary, 229. Normal Schools, 229. Era of Schoolhouse Building, 230. School Term of Five Months, 231. School Attendance and Illiteracy, 231. Defects in Teaching, 231. Election of County Superintendents, 232. Constitutional Provisions Relating to Education, 233. Technical Education, 235. Schools for Men, 237 Conclusion, 237. Power to Seize Property for School Purposes: Important Decision of Supreme Court, 265. Compensation of Secretary and Treasurer, 304. Acts Relating to the Schooling of Minors: Act of 1849, Act of 1855, Act of 1870, 304. Protest Against the Five Months' Term, 338. Pennsylvania to Indiana, 338. Recognition of Cumberland Valley State Normal School: Application, Report, Proclamation, 338. School Grounds, 367. Educational Conferences, 368. Deputy Superintendent,, 399; Trustees of Normal Schools, 399; Uniform State Tax, 400.

Obituary Notices—Stuart A. Wylie, 28; Wm. H. Hunter, 61; John S. Richards, 138; John W. Geary, 303; John Beck, 303; Jonathan Gause, 366; Chas. W. Deans, 366; Geo. C Welker, 367; Horace Armstrong, 398; Wm. H. McGuffey, 399.

Peripatetic Examinations in England, 24.
Philadelphia: The University of Pennsylvania—The Academy of Fine Arts, 198–201.
Poem—The Teacher's Dream—W. H. Venable, 50.
Power to Seize Property for School Purposes: Important Decision of Supreme Court, 265.
"Practical" Female Education, 157.
Practical Knowledge—J. J. Steadman, 283.
Practical Geometry, 191.
Practical Defects of the System—Editorial, 258.
Primary Reading—Delia A. Lathrop, 317.
Public High Schools—J. H. Shumaker, 311.
Public Kindergarten in Boston, 296.
Pupils, The Right to Suspend—Official, 30.

Reform in Primary Teaching—F. A. Allen, 89.
Religion in Common Schools—Rev. I. K. Loos, 94.

Schools of Europe—Hon. B. G. Northrop, 106.
School-House Building, Era of, 230.
School-Houses, Erecting, 378.
Schooling of Minors: Acts 1849, 1855 and 1870, 304.
School Statistics: Population by Counties, Census of 1870; Taxables, Assessment of 1871; State Appropriation for 1872, by Counties—Official, 63.
School Mistress, The, 54.
School-Room, The—194, 261, 298, 331, 362.
Science Study, 35.
Self-Improvement: In City and Country, 289.
Something About Words, 352.
Something New in Primary Schooling, 287.
State Normal Schools: Their Origin, 259.
Statistical Table Showing Work Done by Superintendents During School Year 1871–72, 170.

STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.
Nineteenth Annual Session: The Meeting at Philadelphia, 51. Programme, 19, 51. Editorial, 63. Proceedings, 70–109. Address of Welcome—F. F. Christine, 70. Response—Rev A. R. Horne, 72. Inaugural Address—Henry Houck, 77. Meeting of Superintendents, 79. Haps and Mishaps—Anna R. Bailey, 80. Greek and Latin Authors in College Course—W. C Cattell, 83 Remarks by Hon. M. Mori, Minister from Japan, 84 Compensation of Teachers—Edward Shippen, 84. State Board of Examiners—Discussion of Report, 87. Reform in Primary Teaching—F. A. Allen, 89. English and German in the People's Schools—Rev. S. K. Brobst, 90. Religion in the Common Schools—Rev. I. K. Loos, 94, 124. Poem: What Hath the Angel Written?—Miss F. S. Nash, 96. Benefits of the Superintendency—Discussion, 97. Sunny Teaching—G. Harry Davis, 97. Co-Education of the Sexes—Edward H. Magill, 101. Co-Education—Geo. R. Bliss, 104; Discussion, 105. Schools of Europe—B. G. Northrop, 106. Committee on Monument—Report, 107. Resolutions, 109. List of Members in Attendance, 109.
Successful Teaching—S. A. Espy, 280.
Suspensions vs. Corporal Punishment, 353.
Superintendency, Benefits of—W. H. Shelley, 117.
Superintendents, County, City and Borough, 141.
Sunny Teaching—G. Harry Davis, 97.

Teaching English Grammar, 156; the Alphabet, 363; the Multiplication Table, 332; Geography, 333.
Technical Education: A General Consideration of the Subject—Gilbert Butler, 245.
Technical Education—No. 2—Gilbert Butler, 235.
Technical Education—No. 3—Gilbert Butler, 345.
Teaching from Real Objects—H. W. Gilbert, 123.
Teachers' Institutes—A Means of Improving Common Schools; Their Purpose, Management, Instruction Results to be Sought—H. B. Buckham, 2.
Teachers' Institutes: Papers by W. W. Woodruff, A. N. Raub, and E. E. White, 374.
The Teacher's Mission—W. H. Curtis, 322.
The Teacher and the Public—Chas. H. Verrill, 186.
The Three Stages of Theoretical Culture—Upon Which is Based the Threefold Divison of Education: Primary, Secondary and University Education—Wm. T. Harris, 183.
The Conduct of Life—R. W. Emerson, 16.
The Root of the Matter—Editorial, 328.
Trees for School Grounds, 57.
Two Hours in a Kindergarten, 49.
Two Sides of a Picture: Parents Negligent; Teachers Unqualified—B. F. Hughes, 384.
Universal Education; The Duty of the State to Use Force in Securing It—C. Cornforth, 209.
Unprofessional Profession, The, 297.
Vocal Music.—Three Cheers for the Olden Time, 32. Jerusalem the Golden, 68. Your Mission, 112. Oh, Johnny, Don't Play So, 144. Speed Away, 176. Christmas Carol, 208. Silently Falling Snow, 241. Fair as the Morning, 242. The King and the Miller, 272. That Sweet Story of Old, 308. Swinging 'Neath the Old Apple Tree, 342. The Dearest Spot, 372. Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean, 406.
Waking up Mind—J. Howard Wert, 44.
What Should be Demanded of Teachers?—Anna Randall Diehl, 351.
Word on Ventilation, A—A. N. Raub, 284.
Working Children, Schools for, 195.